Providing Psychosocial Interventions (PSI):
implementation by mental health teams

The PSI practitioner will provide psychosocial, problem-solving and coping skills interventions through protected time strategies, such as a dedicated clinic arrangement or PTET (protected therapeutic & engagement time) initiative, with practice supervision being provided by an advanced practitioner.